SIOR St. Louis Awards 2007 Scholarship

ST. LOUIS, June 14, 2007 – The St. Louis chapter of the Society of Industrial and Office REALTORS® and the SIOR Educational Foundation have awarded Wanda Kolodziejczyk a $3,000 scholarship.

Kolodziejczyk is a graduate student at St. Louis University, pursuing a master's degree in urban planning and real estate development. She holds a bachelor's degree in sociology from Indiana University, where she graduated with honors. While an undergraduate, she assisted with sociological research leading up to her undergraduate honors thesis, an analysis of the perceived health of a Midwestern population.

“Wanda has demonstrated a proven desire and laid down the foundations to begin a successful career in real estate,” said Joseph F. McGauley, SIOR, president of the St. Louis chapter. “We congratulate her and are pleased to support her academic career.”

The SIOR Educational Foundation's mission is to promote, sponsor and support education and research initiatives that advance professionalism in the commercial real estate industry. Established in 1962 to publish the industry's first graduate-level textbook on industrial real estate, the foundation has maintained its dedication to expanding understanding of the commercial real estate industry. Each year, the foundation matches the St. Louis chapter's gifts to deserving real estate students.

Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the Society of Industrial and Office REALTORS® is a global professional organization that certifies commercial real estate service providers with the exclusive SIOR designation. Individuals who earn the SIOR designation adhere to the highest levels of accountability and ethical standards. Only the industry's top professionals qualify for the SIOR. Today, there are 2,800 SIOR members in 480 markets in 20 countries. With approximately 60 members, the St. Louis chapter is one of the largest and most active SIOR chapters in the country.
